Prory Hospital Altrincham

Addiction treatment step-down day care programme

We believe that anyone struggling with addiction deserves the best possible support to make a strong and lasting recovery, and we are dedicated to providing you with every resource that you need to tackle your condition, within a safe and highly compassionate environment.

About the programme

The step-down day care programme will provide a robust care pathway from our inpatient addiction treatment programme, helping to improve your confidence, strengthen your recovery and support you in the transition from hospital to home life.

The day care programme will provide:

- + Therapeutic workshops
- + Relapse prevention techniques
- + Bespoke assignments to develop learning
- + Tailored care
